

Case - Timothy N. Pfeiffer,
Subject - Homicide, New Brunswick, N.J.,
Operative - 312.

105.1572

312/Gibson

Operative after a time left the company of Mr. Bradley, and continued on about Town.

Operative learned during the course of the day that the people whom Mrs. Gibson and the two new witnesses have reference to as being at place of the murder that night, are, Mr. Mills, Mrs. Hall and Willie Stevens, and also a fourth person whom there is some doubt about at the present time, but it is supposed to be either Harry Stevens or Harry Carpenter.

At about 9 p.m. Operative proceeded to the railroad station and joined Mr. DeM., then Operative boarded a train for New York City and discontinued.

In addition to the facts above related, Operative learned from Garry Kenny that a McDumott has an agency in New York City, and that he lives in the suburbs of New Brunswick - That Hamborsky sold a church to some other religion, and the Hungarians got sore, and that another minister came along by the name of Matthews, and held a meeting and sort of pacified the Hungarians. It is a well known fact in New Brunswick, N.J. that Hamborsky ran around with Hungarian women for sporting purposes, and that he drank quite a bit, and due to his bad habits his life was threatened, and he was forced to leave New Brunswick. At one time Hamborsky went into a saloon looking for a copy of the "Saturday Evening Post," he told a fellow that he would give him $5.00 to secure a copy; the fellow got the desired copy of the "Saturday Evening Post," but Hamborsky never gave the fellow the money.